PUBLISHED BY
SENIOR CLASS OF 1916

VOLUME ONE

Kentucky College for Women
Danville, Kentucky

The Champlin Press, College Printers, Columbus, Ohio

MISS RUTH ANDRUS Dean

The Senior Class
of Nineteen Sixteen
dedicates this volume of The Daisy
to
MISS RUTH ANDRUS
to whom such a large part of the success of this annual is due
and whose unfailing patience and interest have been so freely bestowed upon us.

Foreword

OUR aim has been to make this, the first volume of "The Daisy," a true record of the events of the year, 1915-1916. If we have accomplished this, our success is due to the students and the members of the faculty who have helped us in our work.

We sincerely hope you will receive it in the spirit in which it is offered, and that in the reminiscences of passing years, it may not be entirely valueless as a reminder of the happy days at K. C. W.

Senior Class History

IN THE issuing of the first number of the "Daisy," to be hereafter annually issued by the Senior Class, we, the class of 1916 feel an honorable pride. For to be the pioneers in any movement for the advancement of high ideals and college spirit is an honor not to be lightly thrust aside. And so in writing a short history of the Senior Class, I ask that you kindly overlook what may seem intolerable conceit, for you must admit that the class is a "daisy."

From what a tiny seedling has grown this wondrous plant, which to-day bears on its stems thirty magnificent "daisies." We were but ten when we were first planted in the garden of K. C. W. Although thorns and thistles have appeared many times, those ten seedlings have struggled on through thorn and thistle sleet and snow, until they have brought three-fold, the present Senior Class, each one a "daisy."

Twice has the mistress of our garden been called elsewhere. First in 1913 when Mrs. Noel left us to set out plants in the far West and again in 1915 when Miss Thomas planted her garden elsewhere. Both times we drooped, for we felt our sunlight had been taken from us. But suddenly it again appeared and shone down so beautifully on us in the tender love and watchful care of Miss Andrus, who has brought us to the harvest.

Heavy storms have laid us low and threatened our very existence, notably the rule requiring examinations which broke over us in 1914. Would we survive it? Could we survive it? We did, for that cloud soon became as nothing to us.

No little part has this class played in the history of K. C. W. In athletics, we point with pride to the achievements of Julia Allen, Susie Roberts, Frances Garnett and Letitia Klein, all basketball stars, who have brought glory and joy to dear old K. C. W. Dorothy Ratliff, our president, is also president of the Dramatic Association. She has been a moving spirit in developing talent along this line at school. The other class officers are Catherine Foreman, vice-president, Dorothy Read, secretary, and Margaret Johnson, treasurer, all of whom have much executive ability.

In social events our class has played a leading role. The reception given by "1916" to the class of "1915," in May 1915, in the Community Room of East Hall, has been pronounced the most successful of Junior receptions.

Space forbids my writing of all of the achievements of the Senior Class, every one of whom is a "daisy," loyal and devoted to the highest ideals of our beloved Alma Mater, Kentucky College for Women

SENIOR CLASS MASCOT

Senior Class Songs

As we gather here to-night
 1916
 Hear the sound of loyal voices
 As we gaily sing,
 As the years fly merrily
 Let us always be
 Friends forever
 Ne'er to sever
 True to old K. C.

S—that's the way to begin
 E—that's the second letter in
 N—that am the third
 I—what a funny kind o' bird
 O—sure it's a bluff—
 R—now it's enough
 S-e-n-i-o-r, that 's the way to be a Senior.

We've labored and toiled for many a day,
 Yo ho—ha-ha!
 To become revered Seniors, 'tis the only way
 Yo ho—ha-ha!
 With under classmen we never mix,
 For we are the class of 1-9-1-6.
 Yo ho—ha-ha!!

JUNIOR CLASS

Junior Class History

HEARKEN, all ye, unto the fame of the illustrious class of 1917! This history of the "demeanors and misdemeanors" of this class would put to shame the shades of old Gibbon with his dry tales of the Roman Empire.

When we came here four years ago we found things moving in a slow manner, not at all to our liking. Now it fell to the lot of us little maids with pig tails down our backs and "school shoes guaranteed not to wear out at the toes" to assist in some very stirring changes.

We came to Caldwell College. It was a girls' school then; but soon after we entered, it was found necessary to incorporate this and several other schools into Kentucky College for Women. The change here is all very clear except for the use of that word "women." Now what does it mean? Bobby Burns probably knew more about women than anyone who ever wrote about them. He said, "A man's a man for a' that," but he didn't say what a woman was. Kipling came along later and said, "For a woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke." Now since these two old wise-heads could not define a woman, we will just refer you to Dr. Allen, for he has a whole college full of the creatures.

We, the class of 1917, have among our versatile numbers, star students, star athletes, and heart-smashers—oh, my! We thought of course that Dot Walker had the valedictory nailed down, but this year a dark horse appeared in the person of Lorene Latta, and it looks like a race to the finish.

These two, however, have the race almost to themselves, for the rest of us have met with many discouragements in our pursuits of the higher learning. As witness! No sooner had our class begun to delve into the deep mysteries of chemistry and fill the corridors with the 'odors of Araby the blest' than a small pest house was erected on the extreme edge of the campus and we were respectfully asked and urgently invited to repair thither and continue our operations. Disheartened and mistreated we felt, but we received this consolation from our optimistic president, Marion Boggs, "Don't worry girls, it's close to the stand-pipe and just think of the serenades we can have."

Dot Walker has won us fame on the athletic field. Altho' small, she is a host in herself when it comes to basket ball. Also upon the roll of our athletes we used to number "Garnett," but she, exercising our class prerogative has bluffed herself into the Senior class, along with Margaret Thurman, Ruth McCullum and several others, where they are busily engaged in the deep? studies of Greek Civilization, Bible and Psychology.

And, now, as for the heart-smashers, we dare not mention them lest many an innocent freshman at Centre College have his young dream shattered.

No one president has been able to steer this class thru its stormy career, so we have, during our brief time here, "loved and lost" both Dr. Acheson and Mrs. Riker. We hated to give them up. We have found, however, both as school girls and as college widows that "it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all," for with Dr. Allen at the helm we have no fear but that, in his own good time, he will turn us out as shining lights into a benighted world.

School maids we were; college women we are; suffragette feminists, old maids, or "what nots" we shall be.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Sophomore Class History

Sophs so true and wise are we,
Saliors on life's billowy sea,
All day long we work and toil
Filling our brains with Knowledge's spoil.
Listen, now, and you'll hear the tale
Of how we happened to spread our sail
Once when we were Freshmen young,
And Virgil still was a tale unsung,
A ship came sailing over the deep,
And even now it makes me weep
To think how foolish were we and green,
That Freshman class of 1918,
For we hailed that ship and got aboard,
And never has anyone met such a horde
Of circles, and squares, and parallelograms,
On triangles, rectangles, and old school-mams.
Up from the deep rose old Cicero
And oh! how we wished he'd with Catiline go!
Old Matthew pursued us in his frowning wrath,
Along with History, French, and Math.
We struggled and strove, but all in vain
What followed after gives me pain
When I think of the tears that washed that deck,
And the sad consequences which followed that wreck.
But now, those perilous times are o'er,
Now that we're grown up, we're called Sophomore.
'Tis true that till midnight we study (of course)
O'er the Aeneid of Vergil and the Resultant of Force.
But oh! the next day when others recite,
We yawn and we stretch till our teachers could fight,
Not even that Freshman's hoodoo—a test,
Can make us lose one moment of rest.
And so we sail o'er the briny deep,
While our good ship Luck rocks under our feet.
Many and varied' our talents are they
Which make us a marvel to all, by the way.
One plays basket ball far and wide,
Another's a scholar so learned and wise,
There's a Master of Physics who works under Pressure,
Another who spiels off Burke's Speech without measure,
And last, but not least (Oh! surely you know it)
Among these bright lassies, there's a debutante poet.
So here we stand, just six in our row,
If you've ever seen handsomer, please let us know!

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshman Class History

IF YOU were to come to Kentucky College for Women, you would not have a hard time picking out the Freshman class. For you see we have been Freshmen three years. Each year they have promised to promote us. But alas! not yet! This year they even called us Junior High for awhile, but finally back to Freshman again we went.

For some reason we are able in no manner to keep a class of any size. During a short time we did very well in that respect. Now however there are only six of us; really just three of the original fifteen or sixteen.

Although our class is so deficient in numbers, we hope it is the only lacking thing. Certainly we do not desire to be thought of as a minus quantity in all respects.

As Freshmen we are striving as hard as possible for the distinguished title of Senior, and you just watch and see if we do not by and by leave the name of Freshman behind, and reach this long hoped for goal. It is of course a very steep and rocky path; through Latin, Mathematics, English, French, History, and last but in no manner least, Science.

Though we are very anxious to rise to the honor and dignity of Seniors, still we have this to be thankful for, that the pleasures of school are still ahead of us and we have a fresh and eager desire to enjoy them.

MISCELLANEOUS CLASS

Miscellaneous Class History

HE Miscellany! what an all-inclusive, all-embracing word! "The K. C. W. Miscellany" is not a literary composition, but a composition of girls,—girls ranging in age from fourteen to twenty years; girls tall and girls short; girls fat and girls slim—any kind of girl can be found in "The K. C. W. Miscellany." It is the embodiment of the Arts of Kentucky College.

The Miscellaneous Department of Kentucky College came into existence on a rush order. . . Never before was a department created in such a hurry. It was when "The Daisy" business manager announced in chapel that there was such a department and the Junior class president ejected all Junior-specials from the class; and moreover, when the Dean said that no Junior-specials could have her picture made with the regular Junior class; then it was that the ranks of the Miscellaneous Department were filled. Do not think the Department a kind of receptacle for all the odds and ends of Kentucky College, for there are in it two College Preparatory classes besides the Music and Art girls.

The Miscellanoues student is the most perfect student in college. She is a musician, an artist, a prima donna, a student of expression, a student of languages, of science, and of literature—the most accomplished girl in College. She is of inestimable value to a college and from the Miscellaneous Department may be chosen a girl after your own taste.

The Young Woman's Christian Association

HE Young Woman's Christian Association is an organization wielding a strong influence in the making and moulding of true Christian characters. The purpose of this association is to create, sustain, and extend throughout Kentucky College for Women a high moral standard. The Y. W. C. A. is the very legitimate means by which is being developed the spiritual and social side of young womanhood. It is gradually awakening within us definite opinions of our places in the religious realm; is bringing us into personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Our association of 1915-16 has meant much to the student body. Our cabinet for 1915-16 was: Leonora Lowe, President; Zorayda Cochran, Vice-President; Dorothy Read, Superintendent of Sunday School; Frances Garnett, Secretary; and Catherine Foreman, Treasurer.

Our association has weekly prayer meetings, one each month being devoted to missions. We have a Sunday School in college which is under the supervision of our Y. W. C. A. This is the only College Sunday School in Kentucky of which we have any knowledge. We have six mission study classes this year which are taught by girls of the association.

At the beginning of the school year a reception was given by the association for the K. C. W. girls and our Centre brothers of the Y. M. C. A.

Last year Julia Allen was sent as a delegate to Blue Ridge Conference. She brought back a glowing report with many helpful suggestions for our association. The result of her trip is so splendid that five girls are being sent this year.

We are supporting Ella Barger, a little mountain girl of Buckhorn, Kentucky. During Jubilee month, which is the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the association, a dinner party was given, each girl bringing as many pennies as she was years old. Nineteen dollars was realized, which was used for a portion of the funds for Ella's support.

We are still pushing forward, still achieving and still pursuing.

Student Volunteer

C. W. counts herself fortunate to have among her children and step-children, as it were, a small band of women who are looking forward to lives of service on the foreign field. The members of the Student Volunteer Band are: Anna D. Lewis, Mathematics; Jennie May Strevig, Bible; Mary C. Van Pelt, Resident Nurse; Aurie H. Lancaster, Elementary Department; Susie G. Roberts '16; and Josephine Moore '18.

The Conference stands out in our minds as a memorable event in the year. As guests of Centre College and Kentucky College, the Student Volunteer Union of Kentucky held its yearly meeting in Danville from February 4-6. Six inspirational meetings gave us opportunity of hearing splendid speakers in stirring addresses and talks. Dr. Bowers of Transylvania inspired us by his presentation of "The Missionaries' Task;" Dr. Ganfield fired us by two intensely helpful talks on personal life; and many others brought messages of power and practicability. We had the pleasure of making friends worth while among the delegates, enjoying especially our house guests, and the "eating" of several masculine delegates. We congratulate ourselves that we have had the privilege of being hostesses to the Conference.

OUR College Glee Club is an organization which is growing in numbers and enthusiasm each year. It is a great credit to the school and is one of its strong supports. The club aggregates about thirty members, and is under the direction of Miss Sara C. Porter, head of the Vocal Department. Most of the members are music students, and many are girls of splendid talent.

The club has in past years given an opera and a concert each year. "Pinafore" and "Mikado" have been in its repertoire. This year's work consisted in the giving of Gilbert and Sullivan's Opera, "Trial by Jury," and in assisting on special occasions with musical numbers. The opera, "Trial by Jury" was given February the twelfth, at the College Gymnasium. It was a delightful affair, and when our friends assured us that it really had a professional touch, we felt amply repaid for the weeks of preparation. The cast was admirably selected.

Kencowom

kencowom, maligned of name! In contrariness of nature, united you fall (or is it crawl); divided (Ken-co-wom) you stand,—for school spirit, expressed by Alumnae, by Faculty and by Students. Yes, you brought out our songs and our “honors” and our brains, and paraded all before the public eye. You quickened the alumnae, and they boasted of their husbands and their children, and we were glad to know of what sort they are, since they now belong to us. You touched the hearts of that reverend body, the Faculty, and they recalled “campus” in its original meaning. And as you left us on our own college campus at Commencement, we followed your retreating figure with a sense of your real worth to us.

O Kencowom, come back again! “Your spirit shines through you.” In your name we can conquer other worlds in 1916 and '17.

THE course in Domestic Science offered at the Kentucky College for Women is the very best found in the United States or Canada, (I am almost tempted to say South America and Africa) and is, without doubt, the most far reaching in its influence. The whole college is permeated with the atmosphere created by our wise thoughts and utterances.

During our brief sojourn here we have been presented with a multitude of astonishing facts regarding every possible phase of any situation we should, happily or unhappily, as the case might be, be called upon to meet after we have assumed our various responsibilities in the outside world.

We have been told by one of the members of greatest ability in our class that the only feasible cure for a "disease" like "pediculosis" is to compel the patient to keep absolutely quiet. Another interesting though puzzling fact we have gleaned is that, when a recipe calls for "six eggs beaten separately," we should not beat each egg in a separate utensil and then pour the whole into a common receptacle.

We will consider ourselves as having obtained the heights of glory when we are able to draw house plans in which the second floor fits exactly in the first floor, but we fear the installation of a plumbing plant is completely beyond our powers of attainment.

We do most earnestly desire that the class which is to follow in our wake next year, shall imitate our studious habits; and shall also endeavor to acquire the degree of nimbleness and efficiency with which our fingers are endowed.

DANCES

OCT. 8.....

SUBSCRIPTION 50 CENTS

PRESENT AT DOOR

Danville, Ky. (Special to "The Daisy")

The noted K. C. W. German Club gave its first in the series of dances last evening. Four more of these delightful affairs will take place, and the season promises to be a brilliant one from the number of debutantes and young society men present on this occasion.

The music was furnished by the famous colored Wrong's Saxaphone Quartet. The grand march began at nine-thirty. The leaders were Col. Jake Riker, and Miss Kitty Foreman. Miss Foreman was exquisitely gowned in a gold cloth Lucille creation, draped in blue chiffon.

Among the dancers were several noted couples: Mr. Swift Forgey and Miss Sarah Thompson, famous lyric soprano; Mr. Jack Crawford and Miss Slim Johnson; Mr. Mack Boggs and Miss Smat McDowell; Capt. Cutie Klein and Miss Jap Sallee; Mr. Luke Crutchfield and Miss Lorene Latta. There were various others whom it is impossible to mention. The chaperones, Misses Lancaster, Shaw and Andrus, were pleased with every feature, except several rowdy stags, some of whom were: Fatty Addams, Skinney Garnett, Toughy Mahan, Goggles Read, Lefty Lou Roberts, and Percival Buskirk.

YE LADIES OF YE ROUNDE TABLE

Ye Ballad of Ye Ladies of Ye Rounde Table

It happened once upon a time
That in our hall there was
A companie of ladies fair
Of varied talk the cause.

For some days they did eat and joke
About the table rounde.
And as we saw them there so oft
Full merrie was their sounde.

E'en one there was of gaie Paris
Of dainty mien and dark.
'Twas said she was a "tiger" fierce,
But in for any 'ark.

The next was likewise wee and small
But swift as bird that flies,
Her fingers on the keys were quick,
And quicker her replies

A Titian fair from the frozen north
Sat next in order there,
Her disposition sane and calm
Belied her auburn hair.

The children aye did laugh and skip
When teacher they did spy,
With pictures, books, and scarf of blue
And step so gay and spry.

Black bangs, blue eyes, and one broad grin
Straight from the western land,
We liked her Cupie-bull-dog face
But more her sportsmanship and sand.

A student wise was one of these,
Another Titian blond.
She loved her frolic every day,
Of argument she was most fond.

This companie is scattered now
From all their mirth and fun.
But we can ne'er forget them all
E'en though their days are done.

(Apologies.)

The Dramatic Association

THE Dramatic Association of Kentucky College for Women, organized last September, is the first of its kind in the college. Its members are the student body and the members of the Faculty, if they so desire. Every girl in school entered the association with enthusiasm and determination to make this first year a successful one.

All business connected with association, as ordering costumes, printed matter, selling tickets etc., is carried on by the association officers. By paying a dollar one becomes a member of the Dramatic Association and receives a season ticket to the three plays including the Senior Play. The presentation of these three plays is under the supervision of the expression teacher of the college and to her we owe a great measure of our success.

In December, the Greek comedy, "Pygmalion and Galatea," the first play of the season was given and was very creditably presented. As this was the first play of the Association, necessary stage property had to be purchased and electric wiring done. The Seniors set aside the precedent of giving a Shakespearian play and delighted an appreciative audience in March with a vaudeville performance. The music was especially good and added much to the enjoyment of the performance. The Association will present a Shakespeare play "Twelfth Night" in May as the last of the series.

The aim of the Dramatic Association is to interest all the students of Kentucky College in dramatic production and to promote appreciation of that art. We regard the work of the association as an important factor in our education. We mean to follow up the success of this year's work and arouse every one in the college to a finer appreciation of dramatic art.

The Athletic Association of K. C. W.

THE Athletic Association of K. C. W. was formed in 1901. Every student in the college may be a member. The dues are one dollar for the first year and seventy-five cents for each succeeding year. No one is eligible for the college basket-ball team, or swimming, tennis or hiking clubs who is not a member of this association.

The purpose of the Athletic Association is to promote a high grade of athletics in the school. In order to better attain this purpose, it laid the very splendid bowling alley in the basement of the gymnasium. It also furnished the college with three splendid tennis courts with good nets and balls.

Our hearts swell with pride when we think of our Athletic Association and its glorious successes. We are proud of our good tennis players, we are prouder of our swimmers, but we are proudest of our undefeated basketball team. Just read the scores of the different games and notice how we have defeated each valiant team, one by one.

At the end of this school year our Athletic Association will give a sumptuous banquet to celebrate the unequalled attainments of its members. At this banquet, the Association will present each girl who has attained the required degree of excellence, with a white sweater with the yellow K in acknowledgement of appreciation of her loyal and unceasing labor on its behalf.

Swimming, Tennis and Hiking Clubs

HE rules of these clubs are very severe. No one may become a member until she has fulfilled all the requirements laid down by the charter members. The initiation to the swimming and hiking clubs is especially rigid. One must be able to swim across the pool and back. That does not mean with water wings or some one swimming at your side who will hold you up instead of giving you a good ducking. Another rule (which is a great hindrance to many) is that each person's feet must be of normal proportions with the body and not so heavy as to cause you to sink.

The Tennis club does not require so much skill. Just so you "love" you are eligible.

To belong to the Hiking club you must be a true sport in every sense, ready to stand by your friends if they get caught and are hastily jerked before Honor Board or worse still before the Faculty. "If you cannot be good at least be careful." A better motto could not be adopted than the one given "Watch you step." The flower has also been rightly selected but its appropriateness is known only to those closely connected with the college. To them "Johnny Jump Up" recalls the days when we walked unchaperoned and Honor was left safely at home in the corner. So the Hiking club is really the best of all for 'tis then we shake off dull care."

Ode to the Scrubs

We are the scrubs at old K. C.
We are five valliant men;
But when Coach Littich came to coach,
We quickly numbered ten.

We hold the fort at old K. C.
With all our might and main.
We give the first team good practice,
And show them we are game.

Our captain is both big and strong;
She holds the center down.
And we have two brave guards who try
To hold old GLORY down.

Our forwards are not much on goals;
They don't run up much score,
For Tish and Dot just pick them up
And pitch them on the floor.

We are the scrubs of old K. C.
We have just lots of sand.
We'll ever fight for the gold and white,
And do the best we can.

- 10 Girls give up their "Snappy" in order to buy the "Literary Digest" for the library.
- 11 Kitty and Jap go to town on "Annual" business. Appears to be more like "daily" business.
- 12 Jap and Kitty go to town again on "Annual" business.
- 13 Mayer's Organ recital.
- 14 Why does Mademoiselle always answer the 'phone in West Hall.
- 15 Wesleyan game in Danville, Wesleyan —6. K. C. W. —23.
- 16 Dot Walker cuts French, English and her hair—some cut up!
- 17 The Honor Board asks Tish to exert her helpful(?) influence over Jap and try to keep her quiet.
- 18 Katherine Goodson, the famous pianist, gives a recital.
- 19 Nut shells and orange peels are not in favor with landscape gardeners as campus decoration.
- 20 Coach comes up to basket ball practice. Garnett and Tish doll up in clean middies and show their artistic abilities.
- 21 Ernst debate at Centre. A "reception" afterwards waiting for the rain to cease—"showers of blessings."
- 22 Basket ball game at Danville. University of Louisville—3. K. C. W. —14.
- 23 Miss Blake singing, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart, I'm in Love With You."—"Allow Me to Attach the Appellation of Sweetheart to Your Cognomen."

- 12 Sunshine—it's a good old world after all.
- 13 Most wonderful spring day—flowers grow an inch.
- 14 Most wonderful snowy winter day—flowers shrivel up two inches.
- 15 New Honor Board elected. Too much electioneering and buying votes.
- 16 Miss Andrus, after carefully questioning an assembly of all East Hall girls, finds that the strange noise which has been annoying her slumbers is only Lauren Davis washing her teeth.
- 17 Some "Annual" business by Jap and Kitty.
- 18 Lula Edwards gets excited at the picture show. Spring has come.
- 19 Summer bonnets and some're not.
- 20 Everybody busy packing for Spring vacation—trying to get it done before Friday.
- 21 Miss Mabley in History,—“Catherine, tell all you know about Mary Queen of Scots.”
Kitty:—“She married her cousin, the house burned down, and she married another man.”
- 22 Kitty and Jap go to town on Annual business.
- 23 Senior vaudeville. Some swell! Perfectly elegant!!
- 24 Spring recess.

APRIL

- 4 Then the "Annual" and after that the Deluge.

JOKES

JOKES

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

K. C. W. girls are not as bad as they are painted.

Zorayda:—"Miss Fiske, I'm indebted to you for all I know."

Miss Fiske:—"O, don't mention such a trifle."

Madge:—"Well, I'll be hanged!"

Jane:—"What's the matter?"

Madge:—"I'm suspended."

Girl:—"Bessie, the coffee is nothing but mud."

Bessie:—"Well, it was ground this morning."

Miss Gath, in Physics:—"Now Mary, you understand that heat expands matter, and cold contracts it?"

Mary Rhodes:—"Yes, ma'am."

Miss Gath:—"Now give me an example."

Mary:—"Well, the days are longer in summer."

WOMEN'S CAPES

Cape of Good Hope.....Sweet sixteen

Cape of Flattery.....Twenty

Cape of Lookout.....Twenty-five

Cape of Fear.....Thirty

Cape of Farewell.....Forty

Mr. Pushin:—(hesitating before giving his "ad" for the "Daisy.") "I don't quiet understand. Do you get this Annual out twice a year?"

Miss Mabley:—"Who can mention a date in Roman History?"

Susie:—"Antony's with Cleopatra."

K. C. W. girls are like salad;—it all depends on the dressing.

N PSYCHOLOGY

Nannie:—"Miss Strevig, what is a mental state?"

Miss Strevig:—"I can't explain to anyone who has never been in that condition."

Sadie:—"I feel like everything."

Tish:—"What have you been eating?"

Sadie:—"Hash."

Mrs. B.:—"Susie, did you clean the fish?"

Susie:—"Law no, missus, why should ah clean dat fish? He done lib all his life in de wattah."—Life.

FACT

'Tis truth I tell,
So do not scoff.
Some girls wear well,
And some wear off.

A blotter is a thing we search for while the ink dries.

Ben:—"Dick, where did Tubby go?"

Dick:—"Up to Simmons to have a group picture of himself taken."

REASONS FOR ELECTION

FACULTY MEMBERS

Misses Oak, Miller, Herndon, and Funk.

If I should die to-night,
And you should come to my corpse and say,
Weeping and heartsick o'er my lifeless clay—
If I should die to-night,
And you should say in sorrow and in tears,
"The Honor Board has campused none for years,"—
I might rise from my accustomed spot
And say, "Where's Dot?"

If I should die to-night,
And you should come to my cold corpse and kneel,
Clasping my bier to show the grief you feel,—
I say, if I should die to-night,
And you should come to me and there and then,
Just even hint that Miss Miller had given up the men
I might rise the while,
But I'd drop again .

Each picture above represents two members of the school, faculty and students. The reward for correct answers will be stated on later page, (which see.) For correct answers—look till you find them.

Drawn up by the class of '16 for the benefit of those to follow.

Section I. Study Hall.

- 1, At the ringing of the first bell girls will meet in Hall to exchange books for the evening,—magazines and fiction. At the second bell conversation and reading begin. Conversation, if possible, is to be carried on, between closed doors, doors to be opened only for whispering.
- 2, Saturday morning study hall is to be devoted to cleaning rooms and taking baths,—in other words, to laboratory work in hygiene.

Section II. House Rules.

1. Leave tubs soiled, as you find them, in order to prevent a rush.
2. Lights are to be left on to promote an appearance of festivity in the buildings.
3. The telephones in East Hall are reserved for the “social calls” of the girls. Business calls for teachers will be received at the booth in West Hall.
4. For an hour after light bell loud conversation is urged to prevent homesickness on the part of the Freshmen.
5. Town friends may drop in every evening of the week, that “southern hospitality” may be emphasized.

Section II. Town Rules.

1. Each girl shall attend all the dances in Danville and near-by cities, unless excused by illness. Any girl failing to secure a “bid” may obtain one through Dr. Allen.
2. It is expected girls will attend the Shop Perfet once a day, at least, in the company of boys. We wish K. C. W. girls to be considered “popular”. Girls will arrange that escorts pay all bills.

Infringement of these rules will lead to suspension from the study privileges of the college.

IN FRENCH

Miss Miller:—(Monday) Always remeber it was Malherbe who purified the French language.

Answer the next day on test paper.

We must always remeber it was Malherbe who disinfected the French language.

BELLS

Bells, bells, bells—
We have them all the time.
The're bells for us to get up
And bells for breakfast chime.

The're bells to go to chapel
And bells for classes too
Bells for us to go to lunch,
And bells when we are through.

Bells for all announcements
In the dining room to hear;
And sometimes when those bells ring
We fairly quake with fear.

The're bells for all our meetings,
And bells for basket-ball;
Bells for all our greetings,
And bells for study hall.

The're also Miss Terhune's bells,
By the Belle of the Blue Grass rung;
And these continue from early morn
Until the day is done.

Then the welcome bell for bed,
Which does not come too soon.
By a bell our prayers are said,
Then all is enclosed in gloom.(?)

We fall into our beds pell-mell,
Turn on our sides, and snore.
When Joe rings the rising bell
We wake to bells once more.

SHE WHO LAUGHS LAST

Ruth:—"My father has a fine cedar chest."

Sarah:—"That's nothing; mine has a hickory limb.

Professor:—What three words are used most among college students?

Weary Freshie:—I don't know.

Professor:—Correct. U. of M. Awgwam.

Tommy (to Katherine after a scramble over the basket ball):—"Now just because you are bigger than I am, you needn't think you can walk all over me."

Mabel (in art, frantically cleaning her palette.)—"I've spent the entire morning on one man's arm."

Louise (in theatre in Lexington)—Why Ellen look in front of us, there are three K. C. W. boys.

Miss Shaw (in cold blood):—"To-morrow we shall take the life of Shakespeare. Please come prepared."

The reward for answering correctly the puzzle pictures is the satisfaction of knowing your own friends.

OUR ALMA MATER

For the school in the Bluegrass,
The home of our youth
For all that she's taught us
of friendship and truth,
Alma Mater we pledge thee
Life-long loyalty
Honored mother we'll ever
Be faithful to thee. ■

- CHORUS -

For we love thy broad campus
The shade of its trees
Ever fondly our memories
linger 'round these;
To the ideals thou'st given
We'll ever be true,
All hail, Alma Mater!

Fair KCW!

'Tis the torch of knowledge,
That burns in thy hall,
Shall e'er lead us forward,
Tho far be the call.
Undaunted we'll carry
Thy light through all time,
That the praise, Alma Mater,
■ May ever be thine. ■
